Captain Writes Mother of Bravery of Bernard J. Daly

News of the death by shellfire somewhere in France of Private Bernard J. Daly, reached his mother, Mrs. Mary Daly, 722 St. Andrew St., during the night.

Private Daly volunteered in the Washington Artillery at the time of the Mexican border trouble and went to Mexico with his command. After the return of the artillery from the Mexican trouble he went to Camp Beauregard where he received his training preparatory to going overseas. In June of this year he was detached with a number of fellow soldiers and sent overseas, where on his arrival he was assigned to the 117th Ammunition Train, Company G.

Before going into the army he was employed in this city by the New Orleans and Northeastern Railroad. He was twenty-five years of age and received his education in the St. Alphonsus school.

He leaves besides his mother, two sisters, Mrs. Loretta Greenwood and Mrs. Ella Selph, and one brother, Wm. S. Daly.

The following letter was received from his commander, Captain Chauncey E. Sawyer of Company G, dated Aug. 10, telling of his death:

"I have the sad task of informing you that your son, Private Bernard J. Daly, was killed in action August 1, 1918, at 8:45 o'clock by shell-fire. He died instantly and did not suffer any. Although your son was with his company but one day he impressed myself, and the entire company by his gentlemanly appearance and good soldiering.

"2. Your son was respected and loved by the boys from Louisiana with whom he was transferred to this organization. I am sure had he lived his chances for advancement in this company would have been good. Although I know that any words of consolation from me at this time will be futile in the face of this great loss of yours. I assure you that you have the sympathy of myself and the entire company in this bereavement of yours, and I assure you that your son's cheerfulness, his cleanliness of mind and body, his ability as a top-notch soldier, and his willingness to assume any task no matter how difficult will be remembered by the officers and men of his company. He met his end doing his duty fully and well, a soldier's end, and I sincerely hope that the rest will go as well when the time comes.

"3. He was given a military funeral and laid to rest after blowing tape about 9:00 o'clock in the evening."
