

News Of Maryland And Neighboring

E WAS JULY TWENTY

Suffered with Functional Periods and Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

ing Valley, Ill.—"For many months I suffered from periodic pains... I doctored with our family physician but received no relief... I explained to my friends that I had consulted another doctor and he had advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Soon after taking it I began to feel a change... I am in perfect health and do not thank you enough for the it has given me."—Miss Kate Knapp, Box 725, Spring Valley, Ill.

ool girls and girls who are left at home or in some occupation should not continue to suffer as at such times, but profit by experience of Miss Lawrence... Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and found relief such, suffering. It is a... Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and found relief such, suffering. It is a... Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and found relief such, suffering. It is a...

PEOPLE WHO CHAFE these hundred thousand people in every hamlet proved that nothing is so common as chafing... Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and found relief such, suffering. It is a... Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and found relief such, suffering. It is a...

! LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR all Bottle Of "Danderine" for Hair Thick, Glossy And Wavy.

ves. All Dandruff, Stops itching Scalp And Falling Hair.

William E. Dandridge, superintendent of W. W. Miller, secretary.

FLU HOSPITAL OPENED

Mrs. Lloyd Lowndes Donates Building in Cumberland. Cumberland, Md., Oct. 7.—The Springs property, on Washington street, was opened as an emergency hospital for the treatment of influenza cases today... Mrs. Lloyd Lowndes Donates Building in Cumberland.

MAGESTOWN FAIR TO OPEN

Poultry, Cows, and Horse Shows Also Will Be Held. Hagerstown, Md., Oct. 7.—The thirty-third annual exhibition of the Hagerstown Fair Association will be held October 10-14.

NO IMPROVEMENT AT NEWARK... Newark, Del., Oct. 7.—With little deaths in one day and many new cases reported, influenza conditions here have not improved... Newark, Del., Oct. 7.—With little deaths in one day and many new cases reported, influenza conditions here have not improved.

News Told In Brief Paragraphs

Frederick—Sewell S. Watts, of Baltimore, and Corp. Noah Walker, a marine, wounded in the battle of Chateau-Thierry, delivered addresses at the Brunswick Reformed Church Sunday night... Frederick—Sewell S. Watts, of Baltimore, and Corp. Noah Walker, a marine, wounded in the battle of Chateau-Thierry, delivered addresses at the Brunswick Reformed Church Sunday night.

WEDDINGS

Lynchburg, Va.—Orchels M. Stephens and Miss Virginia Gregory, both of Gladstone, were married here Saturday at the residence of Franklin Street Baptist Church by the Rev. H. B. Jordan. They will live at Gladstone.

DEATHS

Cumberland—Mrs. Lee Haines died Saturday at Oldtown. Her husband is a merchant and is a member of the board of road directors of Allegany county... Cumberland—Mrs. Lee Haines died Saturday at Oldtown. Her husband is a merchant and is a member of the board of road directors of Allegany county.

Funeral

Pulaski, Va.—Mrs. Sallie Leach Downs, wife of G. W. Downs, died Friday night in Baltimore. The funeral was held here Monday, with burial in Oakwood Cemetery. The service was conducted by the Rev. Thomas Z. Opie, of the Episcopal Church.

York, Pa.—John Beck, aged 51 years, a recluse, near New Bridgeville, this county, died suddenly Sunday. A neighbor finding him sick in bed telephoned for a physician. When Dr. N. Allen Overmiller reached the place he found the man dead on the kitchen floor... York, Pa.—John Beck, aged 51 years, a recluse, near New Bridgeville, this county, died suddenly Sunday.

York, Pa.—Harry Sherry, 26 years old of Dallastown, this county, died at the York Hospital Monday of tetanus. Two weeks ago the young man shot his toes when his gun was accidentally discharged... York, Pa.—Harry Sherry, 26 years old of Dallastown, this county, died at the York Hospital Monday of tetanus.

Frederick—Herman Frank Steider, 98 years old, a miller, died Friday night. He operated mills in Maryland and Virginia. At the outbreak of the Civil War he became fed and forage master in the United States Quartermaster's Department, and when his brother, the late John A. Steider was elected sheriff he served as deputy under him... Frederick—Herman Frank Steider, 98 years old, a miller, died Friday night.

Charlottesville, Va.—Miss Georgia B. Grinnan, of Richmond, died at the University Hospital. She was a daughter of the late Dr. Andrew G. Grinnan, of Madison county, and is survived by one sister and two brothers... Charlottesville, Va.—Miss Georgia B. Grinnan, of Richmond, died at the University Hospital.

Westminster—Musicalian Frank Miller, aged 18 years, of Naval Reserve, died of pneumonia Monday at Norfolk. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Miller, this city. His body arrived here Monday for burial, being delayed at Norfolk on account of the shortage of caskets... Westminster—Musicalian Frank Miller, aged 18 years, of Naval Reserve, died of pneumonia Monday at Norfolk.

Westminster—Miss Carrie Poisel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Poisel, this city, who was living with her brother, John Poisel, in Philadelphia, died on Saturday morning from Spanish flu. Her body was brought here Sunday for burial... Westminster—Miss Carrie Poisel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Poisel, this city, who was living with her brother, John Poisel, in Philadelphia, died on Saturday morning from Spanish flu.

Charlottesville, Va.—John H. Rhodes, aged 23, died Sunday night at the home of his father, J. H. Rhodes. He was born near Rivanna, this county, and was educated at the Miller School. Besides his parents he is survived by five brothers... Charlottesville, Va.—John H. Rhodes, aged 23, died Sunday night at the home of his father, J. H. Rhodes.

Charlottesville, Va.—Mrs. Elisabeth Lewis Curry, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. William H. Lewis, of Clifton Forge, died Friday in Washington, D.C. She is survived by two brothers, Mettewebler and William Lewis, the former a flyer with the American forces in France... Charlottesville, Va.—Mrs. Elisabeth Lewis Curry, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. William H. Lewis, of Clifton Forge, died Friday in Washington, D.C.

Two York Soldiers Die at Lee.

York, Pa., Oct. 7.—Two soldiers from this county were victims of Spanish influenza at Camp Lee, Va., Saturday. Harry D. Heindel, aged 30 years, was one of the victims and Private Landis L. Trimmer, aged 22 years, the other. Their bodies will be brought here for burial... York, Pa., Oct. 7.—Two soldiers from this county were victims of Spanish influenza at Camp Lee, Va., Saturday.

THREE MORE FLU VICTIMS

Disease Seems To Be Becoming Milder in Frederick. Frederick, Md., Oct. 7.—Three more deaths from pneumonia, following Spanish flu, occurred in this county yesterday. Miss Pearl Weaver, Buckeystown; Mrs. Melvin Bunkles, Plains No. 4, and Mrs. Scott Fry, near Tuscarora... Frederick, Md., Oct. 7.—Three more deaths from pneumonia, following Spanish flu, occurred in this county yesterday.

Frederick, Md., Oct. 7.—The health of Lieut. William R. Reed, who died at Camp Beaufort, La., shortly after his arrival from Panama, where he had been connected with the Coast Artillery for five years, was held from his funeral by the influenza epidemic... Frederick, Md., Oct. 7.—The health of Lieut. William R. Reed, who died at Camp Beaufort, La., shortly after his arrival from Panama, where he had been connected with the Coast Artillery for five years, was held from his funeral by the influenza epidemic.

York, Pa., Oct. 7.—York Haven again the first town in the county to send its lot in the Liberty Loan drive. Residents of this town have subscribed for $25,000 worth of new bonds. The town's allotment was $50,000... York, Pa., Oct. 7.—York Haven again the first town in the county to send its lot in the Liberty Loan drive.

Frederick, Md., Oct. 7.—Frank E. Harding, about 60 years old, Washington, a chauffeur, dropped an automobile, early yesterday morning, over a 50-foot embankment at the bridge over the Moccasin river on the Baltimore pike, three miles of this city, but escaped unhurt. His coachman was thrown through the air by the river by a fence at the bottom of the incline. Harding, who was intoxicated, remained in the car several hours and finally climbed the embankment and started back to the city. He was treated at the city hospital by Deputy Charles Smith and lodged in jail... Frederick, Md., Oct. 7.—Frank E. Harding, about 60 years old, Washington, a chauffeur, dropped an automobile, early yesterday morning, over a 50-foot embankment at the bridge over the Moccasin river on the Baltimore pike, three miles of this city, but escaped unhurt.

Street Railway Men Organized. York, Pa., Oct. 7.—Motorman and conductors of the York Railway Company have formed a local organization for mutual protection under the jurisdiction of the American Federation of Labor. This organization, it is said, is the result of the failure of the company to act on a petition presented asking for an increase in wages. The employees want the wage scale of $7 to $2 cents an hour... York, Pa., Oct. 7.—Motorman and conductors of the York Railway Company have formed a local organization for mutual protection under the jurisdiction of the American Federation of Labor.

KILLED IN ACTION AUGUST 7

Lieut. James Kelly, Probstown, Makes Supreme Sacrifice. Piedmont, W. Va., Oct. 7.—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kelly were advised by the War Department that their son, Lieut. James Kelly, 29 years old, with the Infantry in France, was killed in action August 7. He enlisted in August, 1911, and was commissioned at Fort Oglethorpe. He went to France in April. There are three sisters and six brothers, by death in the army—Lieut. John J. Kelly, Camp Humphreys, Virginia, an Corp. Leo Kelly, Fort Hill, Oklahoma... Lieut. James Kelly, Probstown, Makes Supreme Sacrifice.

Lieut. W. S. Reis Deed, The health of Lieut. William R. Reed, who died at Camp Beaufort, La., shortly after his arrival from Panama, where he had been connected with the Coast Artillery for five years, was held from his funeral by the influenza epidemic... Lieut. W. S. Reis Deed, The health of Lieut. William R. Reed, who died at Camp Beaufort, La., shortly after his arrival from Panama, where he had been connected with the Coast Artillery for five years, was held from his funeral by the influenza epidemic.

York Haven again the first town in the county to send its lot in the Liberty Loan drive. Residents of this town have subscribed for $25,000 worth of new bonds. The town's allotment was $50,000... York Haven again the first town in the county to send its lot in the Liberty Loan drive.

Frederick, Md., Oct. 7.—The health of Lieut. William R. Reed, who died at Camp Beaufort, La., shortly after his arrival from Panama, where he had been connected with the Coast Artillery for five years, was held from his funeral by the influenza epidemic... Frederick, Md., Oct. 7.—The health of Lieut. William R. Reed, who died at Camp Beaufort, La., shortly after his arrival from Panama, where he had been connected with the Coast Artillery for five years, was held from his funeral by the influenza epidemic.

Hints For The Household

To clean leather furniture, add a little vinegar to tepid water and wash it liberally with a clean cloth. Wipe dry, then to polish apply the following preparation: Whites of two eggs, beaten slightly but not stiff, and mixed with two teaspoonfuls of turpentine. Bat with a clean dry cloth, and the leather should look splendid... To clean leather furniture, add a little vinegar to tepid water and wash it liberally with a clean cloth.

BUILDING THE SHIPS

From the Chinese Herald and Mission. Over the desk of the chairman of the Shipping Board in Washington is illuminated motto: "Noah was 600 years old before I knew how to build an ark. Don't let your ark sink." With this spirit Hurley and Schuyler... From the Chinese Herald and Mission.

Advertisement for Switts' Lignum Vitae. Includes an illustration of a man carrying a large log on his back, and text describing the product's benefits for various ailments. The text includes: 'Switts' Lignum Vitae', 'The United Railway', 'so that the g helped by the to the plants lines which d