SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 13.—The Seattle metal trades council, composed mainly of shipyard workers, has concurred in an appeal to be taken by the Pacific coast metal trades council from an award made recently by a federal wage commission known as the Macy board. The awards were not high enough, the local board has decided.

Ralph Kaufman, vice president of the Union Bank & Trust company of Helena, and a member of the executive council of the American Bankers' association, is in the city for a few days. Mr. Kaufman came to Spokane in 1883 when four years old, and lived here until about 12 years ago. He is a son of the late J. S. Kaufman, who built the Granite block in this city and was with his father in the real estate business and was three years with the Exchange National bank before going to Montana. "Montana is proud of its record in this war," said Mr. Kaufman today. "It is proud of the men it has sent to the war and proud of the fine reputation it has made in raising all its quota for Liberty bonds and war funds. The state is prosperous."

FOR THE U. S. NAVY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—All warships now under construction or contracted for, will be completed. Secretary Daniels said today, after the weekly meeting of the war cabinet. He also announced that the navy yards at Mare Island, Cal., Philadelphia, Norfolk and New York, which have enough work on hand now to keep them busy two years, will be enlarged.

PNEUMONIA CASES SENT FROM JAIL

Take Two Prisoners to Sacred Heart—Flu Cases Show Slight Decline.

Two new cases of pneumonia, following influenza, were reported today among the prisoners in the county jail. Tom Scott, a federal prisoner, was found to be developing pneumonia this morning and Vincent Correlli is in a dangerous condition.

Both were sent to the Sacred Heart hospital. The two cases of pneumonia reported today brings the total among the prisoners to five, with one death. There are now 12 patients suffering with influenza who are being given treatment in the hospital in the jail.

Deputy Sheriff Jack Butts is reported to be recovering from influenza and is expected back to work in a few days.

Rub Your Back! Stops Lumbago

Don't Drug Kidneys! Rub the Pain Right Out With Old "St. Jacobs Liniment"

Back hurt you? Can't straighten up without feeling sudden pains, sharp aches and twinges? Now, listen! That's lumbago, sciatica, or maybe from a strain, and you'll get blessed relief the moment you rub your back with soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Liniment." Nothing else takes out soreness, lameness and stiffness so quickly. You simply rub it on and out comes the pain. It is perfectly harmless and doesn't burn or discolor the skin.

Limber up! Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle from any drug store, and after using it just once, you'll forget that you ever had backache, lumbago or sciatica, because your back will never hurt or cause any more misery. It never disappoints and has been recommended for 60 years. Stop drugging kidneys! They don't cause backache, because they have no nerves, therefore can not cause pain.
