THE CLOSING ORDER IN ITS ENTIRETY

After five weeks of idleness on the part of many business, church and social institutions due to health resecial institutions due to health restrictions, the Newport Health Board, effective Moniday midnight, raised the ban-on all meeting places, churches, schools, theaters, salcoms and open-air meetings. Tuesday morning Newport will find health in the beautings and representation.

The Health Board gave emphatic recognition to the loyalty of the people in supporting the necessary and drastic rulings, and thought that a time of great recoloring was the pay-dreatic rulings, and thought that a time of great rejoicing was the psychological manner to lift the ban. The new ruling however, does not go into affect without public health safeguards. With regard to churches and schools, the heard insists that ministers and teachers shall exclude from the safeguards those who are affected with a common cold, or who have in their raminings a case of influence. This safegiprovise is made applicable to all indoor gatherings.
