WARTIME RECIPES

Try these late vegetable recipes:

Vegetable Hash.

Mix together 1 cupful of boiled beets, 1 cupful of boiled cabbage, 1 cupful of boiled potatoes, 1 cupful of boiled turnips and 1 tablespoonful of chopped onions. Mix in 1 teaspoonful of salt and ½ teaspoonful paprika. Heat a frying pan and melt in it 3 tablespoonfuls of fat. Put the vegetable mixture in the pan and spread

STUNTS FOR SPOOK NIGHT

The Pumpkin Fortune-Teller—Choose a medium-sized pumpkin and cut or paint all the letters of the alphabet upon its sides. Set it on a leaf-garlanded tray in the center of a small table. Blindfold the guests, one at a time and give them a hatpin. Lead the fortune-seeker to the pumpkin and let her point out a letter with the pin. The first letter chosen is the initial of her future mate's first name. Turn the blindfolded person three times then let her point the second initial, which is that of her "fate's" last name.

Candles of Fate—Let the hostess arrange a small candle for each guest—having each a different color. Fasten each candle to a card on which a "fortune" is written. Tie the women's candles with pink and the men's with blue ribbon and arrange on separate trays. Allow each guest to draw a card and read his fortune aloud. Simple rhymes make up the "fortunes" as "Be careful, you who chose the pink. Before you marry think and think!" "Lucky maid who chooses blue shall have husbands one and two!"

The Apple Seed Fortune — At 10 o'clock on Halloween night choose a large apple and snap it with the forefinger while saying, "Apple rosy, apple bright, tell my fortune true tonight!" Eat the apple and count the seeds. Two seeds portend an early marriage date; three, a legacy or a present; four, great wealth; five, a long journey; six, fame; seven, the granting of the dearest wish; eight, a handsome husband; nine, a gift of money, ten, a happy marriage.

Eggplant Loaf.

Boil a large eggplant until tender, drain, and mash, and to the pulp add ½ pound of lean bacon or mixed bacon and cold roast pork or minced ham. Beat two eggs thoroughly and add to the eggplant and meat mixture with salt and pepper to season and 1 tablespoonful of melted butter. Butter a baking dish and put in the mixture. Cover the top with thin slices of baron and bake until the meat is crisp and brown.

INFLUENZA VACCINE TO BE USED IN CHICAGO

Perfected By Dr. E. C. Rosenow, Of Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn.

20,000 Persons Treated.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—Vaccine originated by Dr. E. C. Rosenow, of the Mayo clinic, Rochester, Minn., will be used in Chicago's campaign against influenza.

Dr. Rosenow told the Chicago Influenza Emergency Commission of his experiments with the vaccine, with which he has treated 20,000 persons. The commission at once named a committee of physicians to take charge of the manufacture and use of all vaccines and sera in Chicago, including the Rosenow vaccine. Another committee was named to raise funds for its manufacture and distribution.

Five days will be required to begin the manufacture of the vaccine here, it was stated. Meantime Dr. Rosenow will provide a supply sufficient for 100,000 doses from his laboratory at Rochester.

The vaccine is designed to provide immunity from the disease, though Dr. Rosenow is unwilling to make specific claims as to its value. He believes it aided greatly to suppress the spread of influenza at Rochester.
