The Weather

Wednesday, June 18.

The weather is expected to be clear and comfortable today, with temperatures ranging from 65°F to 80°F. Light winds from the east will make the weather pleasant for outdoor activities. It is advisable to carry an umbrella as there is a 20% chance of scattered showers late in the afternoon.

FUEGRO MILLER IS DEAD

Fuegro Millar, 58, of Napoleon, is dead of influenza at Denver, according to a message received by Toledo officials. Mr. Millar was employed by the Indian Health Service and had been in Toledo for the past two weeks. His death brings the number of influenza deaths in the city to six. The body was sent to his home state for burial.
