HOSPITAL FULL. POLICE WORRIED

If there ever was a time in which the man of the hour was needed in Worcester it is today. And from the talk on the streets and all around the city no one appears on the scene large enough to grapple with it.

Men, women and children are dying in their homes because of this condition. The police are ready and anxious to remove sick people to the City Hospital, but that institution has been closed to all applicants.

Today the police took the matter up with the Board of Health, but up to early afternoon nothing has been done.

A man found dying at 139 Sum-to early afternoon nothing has been done.

A man found dying at 139 Summer Street, whose wife is in the City Hospital, took up attention this forenoon. His wife is in the hospital and there is nobody to care for the man. The police notified the health board, but so far nothing has been done in the matter.

In another house in Chilmark Streat five persons are dangerously sill from influenza and the police are ready to take them somewhere for Ireatment if they can find a cot in which to place them.

Three children in a Tremont Street tenement are also crying for help, but it has not come yet.

As one well-known citizen said a loday: "Ian't there a man in Worcester big enough to take the situation in hand and help save the men, women and children who are dying I m Worcester for want of care.
