

Dawn of World Peace Will Be Theme For

CHIMES OF CHURCH BELLS TO BE HEARD AGAIN ON SUNDAY

Portland Pastors Will Return Thanks for Victory Over the Forces of Hated Autocracy.

CELEBRATION TO BE DOUBLE

City Will Give Thanks for Deliverance From Ravages of Plague; Plan Special Music.

Sunday will be jubilation, victory and thanksgiving Sunday in all Portland's churches. Prayers and songs of thanks and gratitude will rise from every altar of worship over the cessation of hostilities and the dawn of peace. Pastors, Sunday school superintendents and young peoples' leaders all announce wonderfully inspiring meetings for the Sabbath.

The chimes of church bells will once more be heard on Sunday morning throughout the city, beckoning one and all to attend their chosen place of worship, where a double celebration will be held, first over the suppression of autocracy and, second, over the eradication of a frightful plague. Church hymns of a patriotic and martial nature will enliven many of the services, and ministers, keyed to the highest note over the joyful news of victory, will, as never before, have an opportunity of preaching the gospel of peace and of love for our fellowmen.

Reason for Members

"After being deprived of the privilege of worship so long, it will be a great treat again to enter the place of prayer, as well as to meet our friends," said Dr. D. Lester Fields, the new pastor of the Rose City Park M. E. church, who is to preach Sunday morning and evening. Rev. Mr. Fields has been spending the past few weeks visiting the members of his congregation. He also has conducted several funerals and weddings.

There will be a general celebration of events and a reunion of the members and friends of Westminster Presbyterian church Sunday morning and evening. Dr. Edward H. Pence will preach. A special home coming service and peace celebration is planned at University Park Methodist church, where Rev. J. T. Abbott is pastor. At the Church of Our Father (Unitarian) the pastor, Rev. William G. Elliot Jr., will preach on "The Victory and the Great Debt." The Sunday school will be resumed, but the evening forum will not be resumed until the first Sunday of December.

Hunt's Fall Supplies Text

Germany's collapse, as seen in the light of prophecy, will be explained by Rev. Alexander Beers in his Sunday morning sermon at the First Methodist church. The sermon will deal particularly with conditions to follow the close of the war, as seen by the pastor in the light of fulfilled scripture.

Special Thanksgiving services are announced by Rev. C. H. Johnston for both morning and evening at University Park Congregational church. All members and friends of Centenary Methodist church are urged to participate in the Sunday services by the new pastor, Rev. J. C. Rollins. Special services of reunion and rejoicing are planned.

A service of thanksgiving and praise is announced for the Laurelwood Congregational church, Sunday morning, by Mrs. J. J. Handsaker, pastor. At the reopening of services at Woodlawn Methodist church there will be a period of spontaneous prayer by the congregation. The song, "A Stainless Flag," will be sung, and a chorus of young women will sing, "When the Boys Come Marching Home." The pastor will preach.

Pastor Will Hold Two Services: 11/20/2006

Services at Wilbur M. E. Church to Be 'Patriotic Hummer'

The Wilbur Methodist church congregation plans an evening service for Sunday at 7:30 o'clock at the Multnomah hotel. This is an extra service as a jubilee recognition of the concluding of the war. The pastor, Dr. Short, says it will be a patriotic hummer because of the various features that will be introduced; he would not divulge all of them, but said, "The music will be just what a Portland audience would expect of the quartet we have; the address on "Katharine the Kalevala" will not be sleep producing, to say the least, and congregational singing of some of our popular melodies will prove inspiring." The morning hour of worship has been changed to 10:30, and the subject for this Sunday morning will be, "The Source of Life's Issues." The Sunday school will hold its session at 12:15, and the new officers will be in charge. "I anticipate the greatest day thus far in the activities of this enthusiastic congregation," said the pastor.

Sunday Services at Rose City Church

The spirit of victory and thanksgiving will prevail in all the renewed services of the Rose City Park church, Dr. Robert H. Milligan, pastor. W. H. St. Clair, superintendent of the Sunday school, announces that the "On to Berlin" contest which was postponed on account of the ban, will begin and will be carried forward on a more elaborate scale than was first proposed.

The subject of Dr. Milligan's Sunday morning sermon will be "The Meaning of Victory." In the evening the doctor will preach the first of a series of sermons on "The War and Prayer," the subject of the first sermon being, "Both Sides Praying." Special music will be rendered by the quartet.

Praise Services at Church of Nazarene

The First Church of the Nazarene will celebrate the closing of the war and the opening of the church services on Sunday with a great people's praise service at 11 o'clock. Sunday school rally at 9:45 and another rally by the young folks at 8:30, closing the day with a sermon by Pastor Davis appropriate to the day.

Will Speak at Arleta

Rev. Bruce Kinney, D. D., district superintendent of the American Baptist Home Mission society, is to preach Sunday evening at Arleta Baptist church. Dr. Kinney came to Portland to attend the funeral of the late Dr. C. A. Woody.

CHURCH INTERIOR GREATLY IMPROVED

Committee Busy Raising Funds to Lift Indebtedness at St. Davids.

A redecorated and improved house of worship will greet members of St. Davids Episcopal church when they return to their church Sunday morning to join in the "double thanksgiving" service which the rector, Rev. Thomas Jenkins, has planned. During the time the church has been closed by the health order, the vestry has had the interior cleaned and the walls redecorated. A committee of men has also been at work raising the last of the debt resting on the church building. They report splendid progress and hope to report all money pledged by Sunday.

Both junior and adult choirs will be at their work, having made special preparation for the resumption of the services on Sunday. The special thanksgiving will be for the cessation of hostilities and the dawn of peace. Special prayers will be said for the government, President Wilson and the peace conference. In the evening the special thanksgiving will be for the abatement of the epidemic. Prayers will be said for all those still sick and also for all who have died as victims of the disease. The rector will preach on "Life Under the Ban."

Regular Services At Friends Church

Regular services will be held in the First Friends church, Sunday. In the morning the pastor will deal with the effects of the closing ban on the church. In the evening a people's praise service will be held commemorating the fact that the members of this church have suffered by the epidemic, all are recovering. The congregation will enjoy for the first time the use of a new heating plant installed during the closing ban.

Patriotic Service At First Christian

Rev. Harold H. Griffith will conduct a patriotic service in keeping with the triumph of the American idea and in recognition of 20 stars recently added to the church's service flag at the First Christian church. A full program of music will be rendered by the church quartet. The Bible school will resume its sessions at 9:45 a. m. and the Christian Endeavor society at 6:30 p. m. The pastor will preach at both services.

Peace and Victory to Be Celebrated Picture to Be Sent to Men in Service

Peace and victory is to be celebrated in the home coming service Sunday morning at Mt. Tabor Presbyterian church. In the joyous reunion the church will not forget the boys "over there," as the relatives of the honor roll boys will be guests of the church at the service. At the close of the morning worship the congregation will group in front of the church, where a group picture will be taken to send as a Christmas greeting to the boys who are in the service. Mt. Tabor has 59 on its flag, four of which are The pastor will speak on "The Long Peace." In the evening Fred Lockley, just returned from a year with the army will tell of his wonderful experience and will show trophies gathered in France and Flanders. Special pat music will be rendered. Those who have read Mr. Lockley's stories dat The Journal will no doubt be inter in seeing and hearing the writer.

GREAT PATRIOTIC SERVICE PLANNED

Dr. Waldo, Mayor Baker, Civil and Military Authorities to Be Heard at Baptist Church.

A great thanksgiving and patriotic service has been arranged for Sunday night at the First Baptist church. Dr. Waldo, the pastor, will have charge of the meeting. Several distinguished men, representing different parts of Portland's civic and political life, will be present and will deliver short addresses. Among these will be Mayor George L. Baker, Lieutenant David Watts, commanding officer of Portland Barracks; Chaplain Burton F. Bronson of Vancouver Barracks. Dr. Waldo will also speak. The stringed orchestra of the One Hundred Fifth squadron will be present and will open the service with music. The temple quartet will give some choice selections. Honor will be done to the service flag, which represents 89 men in the service, one of whom was recently killed in action and another of whom died of influenza.

A flag saluting service will be participated in and the general public is invited to come and enjoy this service. Patriotic songs will be sung by the congregation. A grand reunion service has been planned for the morning in home coming reassembling after being debarred from worship on account of the epidemic for the last five weeks. Dr. Waldo and his classmate, Rev. Bruce Kinney, D. D., superintendent of the Midland division of the American Baptist Home Mission society, will have charge of the service. Both the pastor and his friend will deliver short addresses and a delightful and fraternal spirit will doubtless be manifested and many of the members of said congregation will be ready to greet each other after the long absence.

SPECIAL MUSIC AT EVENING SERVICE

First Methodist Church Celebrate Great Victory Sunday Night.

First Methodist church will celebrate the great war victory at its services day morning. There will be special music of a patriotic nature at both morning and evening services. Sunday will be jubilation and victory day. Joshua Stanfield will speak on "Victory of Right." The evening service will be a continuation of the most special theme. Patriotic church martial airs will be sung by the congregation.
