

Italian... moved into Conve...
and crowded the streets abo...
... As many as poss...
... the big auditorium; a great...
... gain admittance...
... outside, taking up the...
... of approval that came...
... and with vigor making them...
... in distant streets.

Italian Rochester was celebrating Italy's forty-eighth national holiday, and Rochester Americans were helping them make it memorable. A parade that was marked with an unusual display of national and Italian colors and a number of special features left the vicinity of Brown and Frank streets at the close of a disagreeable day, but which at that hour was brightened by a sunset that painted the western sky in glorious colors. To Jyell avenue, up State to Main through Main street east to Clinton avenue south, and by that thoroughfare to Washington Square and Convention, the march was through thousands of cheering men and women. The enthusiasm culminated in the Convention Hall meeting when the flags of the Allied nations were waved above the cheering thousands.

Hall Lavishly Decorated.

The Convention Hall stage, balcony and walls were lavishly draped with American and Italian flags. Across the front of the platform was a beautiful arrangement of flags, ferns and palms, and when the colors from the societies that had taken part in the parade were added and the playing of "The Star Spangled Banner" brought several thousand smaller flags into action the scene was one that will not be forgotten soon by those who took part.

Members of the Italian Red Cross gave charm to the picture, and cleverly dressed representatives of George Washington and Garibaldi, and of Italia and her children, added picturesqueness to the group upon the platform, which included Judge John M. Stephens, George Eastman, Edward G. Miner, Alvin H. Dewey, William W. Hibbard, as acting mayor of Rochester, and Granger A. Hollister, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Tribute of Major Barnes.

Mr. Hollister, acting as temporary chairman, introduced Frank Scarrino, the acting chairman of the evening, who made a brief address and introduced Major James Barnes, U. S. A., commandant of the United States School of Aerial Photography in Kkodak Park. Major Barnes paid tribute to the men of Italy who are marching to the front to-day. Not from their home land alone had they come at the call for freedom to the world, he said, but regiment after regiment from this the land of their adoption.

"They are proving to be soldiers of the most wonderful kind," the speaker said; "and, with faith in the cause ahead of them and faith in the man alongside of them, they are moving forward to a victory which we know now must come. But do not let this lure you into complacency. You will be helping if you keep in mind that you are a part of the great army that will prove invincible and down the unspeakable Hun, if ideals are lived up to. Every nail you drive, every rivet put securely in place, is one more added to the Kaiser's coffin."

Tattered Flag and Veteran.

One of the big moments of the evening followed, when the colors of the Italian society Bersaglieri La Marmora, were carried upon the stage. The flag is the one that was carried through the streets of Rochester twenty-nine years ago. The sight of the tattered colors brought an ovation from the audience, and the address of the president of the society, Nicola Calucci, himself a veteran of the famous entry of Italian troops into Rome, brought the audience to its feet in enthusiasm.

He was followed by Lieutenant-Colonel Americo Pio, of the Eighty-first Italian Infantry, who had been the guest of the day and finished a strenuous day in his address of the evening, which was delivered in Italian. While the early part of the program had been... inside the hall I... had spoken to an... Only at the

JEAN KENYON MACKENZIE.

On Monday evening at 8:35 o'clock Jean Kenyon Mackenzie, celebrated author and missionary, will speak at the Third Presbyterian Church. Miss Mackenzie has written "Black Sheep," "An African Trail" and other books as well as articles printed in the Atlantic Monthly.

Miss Mackenzie was educated in a private school in San Francisco, her early home. Later she attended a private school in Paris. After a time she went to still another in Dresden, Germany. On returning to her home in California she entered higher classes in English literature in the State University.

She returned to Paris after a time and attended lectures at the University of France, on French literature, arts and crafts in the Middle Ages and French history. In her vacations she traveled in Great Britain, France, Germany and Austria and Italy. Her father was a native of Scotland and her mother is Scotch by descent.

Thirteen years ago Miss Mackenzie offered to go wherever the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions in New York wished to send her.

HOW TO DEAL WITH SPANISH INFLUENZA

Suggestions Made by Acting Health Officer.

Dr. Joseph Roby, acting Health Officer, said last evening that so far as he knew no cases of Spanish influenza had been reported in this city. He said the disease, from the general description of it, appeared to be lobar pneumonia. He said that people are stricken in the street or at work with a severe chill, which is followed by fever and a temperature running from 101 to 103.

"It has been determined that there are at least three distinct types of pneumonia," said Dr. Roby. "For type No. 1 there is serum which is practically 100 per cent. effective, and from forty to fifty per cent. of all the cases of pneumonia are of type No. 1."

"The people of Rochester are urged through their physicians in case they are attacked by what may be Spanish influenza, or pneumonia, to send a sample of sputum as soon as possible after the severe chill is experienced to the health office for determination as to its character and type. If it proves to be type No. 1 the patient can be treated with serum and a quick recovery effected in practically every case where there are no complications."

NATIONAL FEELINGS STIRRED

Italy's Independence Day Observed at Chamber of Commerce.

Patriotism ran high at the luncheon held at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday in celebration of the Italian national holiday. Three speakers brought to the celebrators the spirit and meaning of the great war—Lieutenant-Colonel Americo Pio, veteran of Italian campaigns; Major James Barnes, commandant of the Aerial Photography School of the army, writer, explorer and soldier, and Joseph T. Alling, who has just returned from work in France. Granger A. Hollister presided.

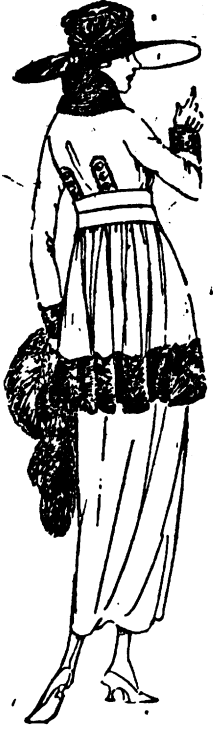

Colonel Pio, a fluent, earnest speaker, reviewed the causes of Italy's entrance into the war and its part in the war. He declared that Italy understands that if the war is won thanks for the winning must go to America.

Major Barnes spoke in high praise of the "drifted men."

"There is no better soldier to-day than the drifted man, the selected man," he

Fall Suits, Coats

Ready Saturday With Thousands of Newest High-Grade, Purse and Every Woman's T

New Fall

New Fall Suits

Of fine Wool Poplin with collar, cuffs and border of rich silk Plush and many other styles in English Mixtures, Burellas, Serge and Oxford Cloth—That are positively $35 values—featured just for To-day at

$24.95

New Fall Su

Of fine Broadcloth, poplin, fine Gabardine, Velours, men's-wear, Serge and mixtures in Richly trimmed and en—also more than Fifty styles—$40.00 values—just for To-day, at

$29.95

New Fall

New Fall Coats

DON'T WAIT! But see these wonderful COAT BARGAINS—(undoubtedly the best purchase we've made this year)—some with borders and edgings of beaver plush—others plain. Also including Fine Black Kersey and Cheviot Coats in stunning big belted effects—women's and misses' sizes—values up to 30

$19.95

New Fall Co

Wool velours, burella and mixtures, in fur or fur fabric trim in the lot. All the new choose from. Values u

$24.95

New Fall

New Fall Dresses

Made of heavy quality Taffeta, in navy or black, pleated frill edging on the shawl collar and deep cuffed tunic. Also others in Serge, Satin and Crepe de Chines. Values to $22.50. Just for To-day

$14.95

New Fall Dr

Made in stunning effects with fringe trimming. Also more other styles, including Satin, Serge, Jerseys, gette Crepe. Worth for To-day

$19.95

To-day Wonderful Se

500 Crepe de Chine

BLOUSES

Worth up to $5.00

$1.95

Some of these Blouses are slightly soiled from handling but wonderful values for the price. All

400

BLO

Worth up

$1.

These Blouses are of w and other dainty tub fabric with fine laces; also in col wear; dainty Buster Brown with cuffs to match; new E pink and blue; turnback c