INFLUENZA DAMPER STIFLES POLITICS

Meetings Prohibited, Spellbinders Must Work on Individual Victims.

The campaign that Christian men have been making to stop the influenza epidemic in Spokane starts tomorrow with a planning session at the home of Mrs. J. W. Davis, 1102 E. Washington. The speaker will be Dr. J. W. Davis, who has been in Spokane since the epidemic broke out last November, a little more than two weeks ago. He has been out on a new scheme to reach the voters.

Dr. J. W. Davis, former Bill Moche's physician, is a doctor for the Spokane Veterans' hospital. The last he was in Spokane, he was a member of the Republican state committee and was elected to the Spokane District, but he was not called into conference. As a result, he was not able to go to the conference and talk over the question of the epidemic with the other members of the committee. He was yesterday received formal approval of his plan.

Telegraphic advice from the national committee of the National Foundation for W. L. Wilson will be available for the Spokane campaign in the state. However, Walker intends to suggest that the two senators come west and make an auto tour with them. The Fourth and Fifth Districts, and informally the support of Republican Congressmen in the Fourth and Fifth Districts, and Senators in the the county committee will be worked up. In the meantime, he has them organize automobile parties to go to the various towns in the southeast and see as many party leaders as possible. He has also been ordered to see the school of stamping

Dyspepsia Spoils Beauty

Make the Dark Rings Around Eyes, the Creases in the Cheeks and Frown the Companion. How to Get Rid of Dyspepsia.

Take My Advice and Use Stewart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Disagreeable food ruins the complexion. The poor complexioned woman on the street, where the corners of the mouth, the top of the nose, give the face that ugly, repulsive, unattractive expression in the morning and evening are tried all day. It is not what you eat but the fault of digestion that hurts. Get rid of anything you eat and see how it affects your complexion. Eat light, give your food time your stomach, supply your blood with nourishment, strengthen your health; appearance and bright eyes. Off goes the frown. Get 50 cent box of Stewart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store. They are real health makers. (Advertisement.)
