Mrs. Charles Smithers and daughter, Vera, of Spokane, were guests on Sunday of the W. E. Hansen family.

The Ancient Order of United Workmen held a regular meeting last Friday night in Moose hall, at which time the following officers were elected: Past master workmen, W. H. Ebeling; master workman, G. A. Zimmerman; foreman, Herman Tackman; overseer, Bert Hanson; recorder, E. T. Kertson; financier, J. W. Brown; treasurer, O. J. Boissonneau; guide, Rowland Kertson; inside watch, Frank Novak; outside watch, John J. Hodgins; trustee, for 3 years, Ben Olson; medical examiners, Dr. W. E. Abrams and Dr. J. Farrow; musician, Bert Hansen.

A big celebration is being planned for January 3 commemorating the 50th anniversary of the installation of officers. A large class of candidates will be initiated. An interesting program will be given. Grand Master J. F. Fogarty will be the principal speaker. Refreshments and dancing will complete the evening's entertainment.

Jack Robinson returned Sunday from a six week trip to Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Whipps of Staples, Minn. were guests over the week-end at the A. Williams home.

Claude Fairfield was transferred here from Vancouver, Wash., and went to work yesterday for the Great Northern.

Private Harry Johnson, who has been in a development company at Camp Kearney, Cal., received an honorable discharge recently and arrived home this morning.

The Ladies' Literary society held its regular meeting in the domestic science room of the high school Friday afternoon and spent the afternoon working in the surgical dressing department of the local Red Cross. Ten members were present. A brief business meeting was held at which they decided to discontinue the meetings until after the holidays. Mrs. W. A. Malstrom, the president, was absent because of illness.

J. C. Parks has purchased the S. M. Marston home, corner Harrison street and Everett avenue. The family expects to make the place their home.

Dr. Merrill Wood, city health officer, reports 56 cases of influenza for the week ending last Friday evening, as compared with 48 the previous week.

Engineer William Struck returned to work this week, after two weeks' vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Thompson are the parents of a baby boy born Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barrett entertained at dinner Friday evening for Miss Eagle of Calgary, B. C., Miss Griffith, Mr. and Mrs. William Hunn and Miss Gertrude Richardson.

Complete Dressings.

The surgical dressings department of the Red Cross is busy preparing for the day. This finishes the surgical dressing work for the present, but the department must stand in readiness for any emergency calls. Mrs. Charles Barrett is chairman of this work.

L. Stanton was taken ill with influenza yesterday.

Mrs. Charles Schmidt and two children of Eau Claire, Wis., who spent last week here visiting Mrs. Schmidt's sister, Mrs. Wayne McCroskey, left this morning for a tour of the Coast before they return.

James Atchison of Portland arrived Saturday evening and has accepted a position with the Great Northern. He will move his family here soon.

Miss Emily Swanson left Sunday evening for San Francisco, where she will visit her parents during the holidays.

All those who brought scissors, stationery and knives for use in the surgical dressings department may get them at the surgical dressings room in the Arlington school building or may call on the chairman, Mrs. C. H. Barrett, Glenwood 1113.

J. W. Brown, who was called east by the death of his brother, returned home a few days ago.

Louis McKain of Orchard prairie underwent an operation for appendicitis Saturday at St. Luke's hospital.

doors and workers will then know that each house containing a membership card need not be called up or visited.

"In this campaign we want to get as nearly as possible every person to become a member and pay his dollar membership fee."

Mr. White is sending out two letters today. One is to business houses and the other to members of the civilian army.

"We are asking each business and industry to organize its forces and have each employe sign the membership honor roll of the Red Cross," says the letter to employers. "Sheets containing these signatures will be bound in book form, making a permanent record, and each patriotic citizen will want to be enrolled. Each member will receive a button, 10 Christmas tuberculosis seals for letters, and a window flag for Christmas week. This is a cash campaign. We will not take pledges."

ITALIAN KIDDIES ENJOY LUXURIES OF THE RED CROSS

Children of Soldiers and Refugees Are Sent to Summer Camp and Fed.

GENOA, Nov. 10.—(By Mail).—Children of Italian soldiers and of refugees are returning here from Red Cross summer camps.

Wholesome food, fresh air and outdoor exercise have built them up to strong health. Among them is the little daughter of Ciri-Ciri, famous Italian airman, killed in action.

Genoese mothers are emphatic in praise of the American Red Cross camps. Many of the youngsters, now war orphans, will continue to be cared for at Red Cross winter stations now being opened up in various sections.

In addition, the Red Cross is carrying relief to thousands of babies and children throughout Italy.

At Rome the Red Cross has established a children's health bureau to help needy mothers in the care of their babies. Milk and war clothing are being supplied. American Red Cross nurses also extend advice to young mothers at community conferences and in the homes.

Italian doctors, teachers and local authorities are giving every aid.

ADD 290 NAMES TO FLU REGISTER

At 2 o'clock this afternoon there had been 290 cases of influenza reported to the health department, along with 14 cases of pneumonia. One physician reported 97 of the cases for a period covering the time between December 1 and 10.

wanted are former Premier Talaat Bey, former Pasha and former Minister of Navy Djemal Pasha.

NO COIN LEFT IN STATE FOR RETURN FUGITIVE

There will be no extradition from other sons charged with the crime after April 1, 1919, unless the legislature passes an act, or unless the committees of the state are willing to pay the expenses.

Governor Lister has sent communication to the legislature notifying them that "from the April 1, 1919, unless the legislature appropriates to cover the cost, there will be no money. It will therefore be necessary for your committee to appropriate the money for the expense of extraditing the fugitive for whom you may be issued by me upon your request."

PASS FEW JURORS FOR I. W. W. TRIAL

Despite Plans for "Silent Defense" Counsel Closely Questioned All.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Dec. 10.—Ten prospective jurors had been passed temporarily at noon today in the Industrial Workers of the World conspiracy trial which opened yesterday.

The trial committee representing forty-four of the defendants continues its plan to conduct a "silent defense," but Harry M. McKee, counsel for three of the defendants, questioned all of the veniremen closely.

One of the defendants, John Grave, who is at liberty on bail, and a companion, Richard Carleton, were arrested here last night on a charge of violating a city ordinance regulating the distribution of handbills and literature. They furnished $30 bail each and their trial was continued until Saturday, because Grave was required to be present at the conspiracy trial in the United States district court.
