Flu Very day 48 years ago, on the eighteenth day of January, 1871, the German empire was proclaimed by an army of invasion in the chateau at Versailles. It was consummated by the theft of two French provinces. It was thus violated from its origin and by the fault of its founders, born in injustice. It has ended in oblivion.

You are assembled in order to repair the evil that it has been doing and to prevent a recurrence of it.
 You hold in your hands the future of the world.

I leave you, gentlemen, to your grave deliberations and declare the conference of Paris open.

Reed Students Are Cautious of 'Flu'

As a precautionary measure against the spread of influenza at Reed college, dances and student meetings which were scheduled last week were postponed.

President Cal Hirsch, president of the Reed Student council, issued an edict against all unnecessary gatherings and urged students to cooperate in the health campaign by avoiding crowds in the city. Each member of the Reed community was sprayed daily last week, and Dr. E. C. Beach, college physician, now has the situation under control.

English Brides of Yanks to Arrive

London, Jan. 18.—(U. P.)—The transport Plattsburg will arrive in New York about January 29 with the first 37 English girls who married American dough-boys. Three hundred more will follow soon. The Red Cross is paying all expenses.

Hermit Found Murdered
 Seattle, Jan. 18.—(U. P.)—His skull crushed, a short handled axe and a blackjack at his feet, and a bloody newspaper under his arm, U. F. Dillie, aged hermit, was found dead in his boathouse in the west waterway last night. Dillie's pockets were turned inside out, and $200 known to have been in his possession was missing.
