Judicial "Wheels" to be Busy This Year

The Chicago County divorce mill will be busy during 1917. The pending list of divorce suits in the common law and equity courts is the largest in the west.

Yesterday Judge Adams refused to grant a divorce until nine months after the date the applicants have time to think it over before the court is asked to grant the "irrevocable" divorce.

"As a result, most suits are filed in the summer peak month," says Judge Adams.
