Brandeis Women Redouble Effortson Impetus of Ford Matching Grant

The recent Ford Foundation matching grant to Brandeis University has provided additional impetus to the membership and book fund efforts of the Detroit Chapter of Brandeis National Women's Committee, according to Mrs. Eugene P. Simpson, chairman.

Under conditions of the grant, says Mrs. Ben Coleman, membership chairman, the university's constituency must raise $8,000,000 by Dec. 31, 1965 in order for her $8 million in matching funds.

The drive, which is being planned by Mesdames Alan Coleman, Joseph Bienenstock, Daniel Friedman, William Foppeke, Murray Altman and Arthur Aaron, is a general fund book chairman.

Mrs. Lawrence Weiner, other chairman are Mandelmen Henry Parton, learned journals and endowment fund; Ivan Rebok, message packets; and William Donen, book fund vice-president.

Mrs. Theodore Birnkrant is vice-chairman of the campaign, "New Books for Old Male Savage to be held in April "Operation Bookshelf," with a goal of $500,000 for the sale, has already begun, she says. Both hard covers and paperback books in all categories are accepted. For pick-up and drop-off, contact the following chairman:

Study Group chairman Mrs. Carl Rosman announced that the following subjects for which listens have been prepared by Brandeis faculty members will be presented, upon demand, for study:

The first chapter meeting of the season will be held Oct. 23 at Temple Emmanu-El.

Brandeis Women's Committee has the responsibility of supporting the women's university's Goddard Library.
