Pioneer Women Millionaire Party to Raise Funds for Child's Day

Announcing its annual observance of the World Jewish Child's Day, Mrs. Sam Fishman, president of Detroit Council of Pioneer Women, states that the first in a series of fund-raising activities, the annual Millionaire Party and Games Night—will be held 8 p.m. April 6 at the Labor Zionist Institute.

Mrs. Aaron Katzman, vice president of funds for Detroit Council, and over-all World Jewish Child's Day chairman, states that several hundred prices have been procured by gift chairman Mrs. Norman Leonoff and Mrs. Milton Weiss, committee members under the chairmanship of Mrs. Katzman and Mrs. Norman Kaster. For information, call Pioneer W. Women, 341-0722.

World Jewish Child's Day activities will culminate with a canister drive, to be announced later, in which several hundred Pioneer Women will participate in Detroit and suburbs, May 1-16.

Funds will go toward the current year's program on behalf of thousands of children making a living in London, World Jewish Child's Day, originally dedicated to commemorate the 1,500,000 Jewish children killed during the Nazi holocaust, now serves as a means of financing the activities of Pioneer Women's child rescue program for Youth Aliya.

Through this program, over 9,000 children have been brought to Israel from 13 countries and rehabilitated in special children's villages, settlements, and institutions.

For information, call Executive Secretary Mrs. Ida Gersten, 341-0722.

Much Wit, Recipes in 'Love, Knishes'

An irrepressible guide to Jew- ish holidays is the subtitle Sar- a Kedan selected for her book "Love and Knishes" which has been reprinted by Fawcett Publications as a paperback.

The subtitle aptly describes the book of recipes which contains a recipe for every Torah portion in the weekly reading or every year. The collection is a book of recipes as well as a book of stories.

With interesting drawings by Ella Calcoss, this volume, dedi- cated "to the wonderful women who never cooked from a book," contains:

- Israeli recipes, food for all Jew- ish occasions, plenty good provisions for Shabbath and festi- vals, Sara Kedan's, mother's delicious嘞 and the appended humorous articles accompanying each recipe.
- A sample is the preface: "If the enemy has cut off your heart through his stomach, then knishes will get there faster than you can count them."
- A section, for instance, is entitled: "How to pleads a tongue in a Tongue, even if it doesn't talk back." Thus, all the way, it is a book containing many good recipes and lots of wit.
