Dear subscriber,

This practical index is a list of all the subjects covered in the weekly press reviews of Focus on Flanders during the course of 2001. Your search has been simplified thanks to the reference FF-issue number and the page number indicated for each one of the subjects.

We have arranged the subjects in main sections and subsections, which are classed in alphabetical order:

- Some main sections are divided into subsections. These are classed in alphabetical order.

- The subjects refer to the titles of the articles, comments and analyses, but are sometimes rephrased for the sake of clarity. They are classed in chronological order.

We are convinced that this subject index will greatly facilitate retrieval in the Focus on Flanders press reviews and hope you will make the best of it.
