Dear subscriber,

This practical index is a list of all the news items covered in the weekly press reviews of Focus on Flanders during the course of 2004. A quick search is possible thanks to the reference FF-issue number and the page number indicated for each one of the items.

We have arranged the items in main sections and subsections, which are classed in alphabetical order:

- The main sections (in capital letters) are Politics and Social Policy
- The main sections are divided into subsections. These are also classed in alphabetical order.
- The articles, comments and analyses are classed in chronological order.
- An overview of tables and graphs completes this part.

We are convinced that this index of news items will greatly facilitate retrieval in the Focus on Flanders press reviews and hope you will make the best of it.
